Founded in 2012, Candy Kittens is an innovative, gourmet sweet range that champions British taste, quality and style. Using the best possible natural ingredients, flavours and colourings, Candy Kittens bring you sweets that not only taste good, but look great.

UK passengers travelling to Europe with Norwegian can now look forward to enjoying the Wild Strawberry flavour Candy Kittens on board their next flight as part of the new autumn menu.

Jamie Laing, Founder, Candy Kittens said: “Hugely excited to have our Candy Kittens Wild Strawberry sweets on Norwegian. I've always been a massive fan and being stocked on board is a big step forward for the brand.”

Live Marie Aasheim, Head of Inflight Services, Norwegian said: “We know that Norwegian customers are looking for something a bit different when they fly with us, which is why we are delighted to offer these gourmet Candy Kitten sweets. We are sure our passengers will love the new addition to our menu.”

Customers travelling with Norwegian this autumn can now purchase the Wild Strawberry flavour sweets, priced at £3, on all short-haul flights departing from the UK.

Norwegian serves over 40 business and leisure winter destinations from London Gatwick, Manchester, Edinburgh and Birmingham. More than 969 000 seats are now available to book from the UK throughout winter, all aboard brand new Boeing 737 aircraft with free Wi-Fi included. Flights to Europe start from £29.90 per person one-way and include all applicable taxes and charges.
