Norwegian has entered into a NOK 170 million contract with Star Tour

Norwegian has entered into an agreement with Star Tour, a subsidiary of the world's largest leisure travel company TUI Travel Plc, for the transportation of Star Tour customers during the winter of 2010/11. The contract constitutes 40% of Star Tour's planned winter volume and is worth approximately NOK 170 million.

The charter flights will depart from five Norwegian cities including Oslo in addition to the Swedish capital Stockholm.
