Norwegian launches new routes from London Gatwick

Norwegian continues to expand its route network from London Gatwick by launching two new routes to Warsaw and Berlin. In addition it increases the number of daily departures to Copenhagen.

There has been a great demand for high quality flights at a low fare from London Gatwick. The positive response from UK travellers means that Norwegian now opens two new routes from London Gatwick.

From mid-September, Norwegian will offer six weekly flights from Gatwick to Warsaw and Berlin. The airline also increases the number of flights between London Gatwick and Copenhagen from four to five daily departures.

Norwegian established its first UK base at Gatwick in May 2013. During the first quarter of 2014, Norwegian had a market share of 10 percent at London Gatwick Airport. Today, the company operates 375 weekly flights and 33 routes to and from the airport.

Flight schedule

London Gatwick – Warsaw

Norwegian will operate six weekly flights (all days except Saturdays) between London Gatwick Airport (LGW) and Warsaw Chopin Airport (WAW) from September 15th. Prices start from £34.90 one way.

London Gatwick – Berlin

Norwegian will operate six weekly flights (all days except Saturdays) between London Gatwick Airport (LGW) and Berlin Schönefeld Airport (SFX) from September 15th. Prices start from £29.90 one way.
