Norwegian reports 12 per cent passenger growth and high load factor in August

Norwegian carried almost 2.9 million passengers in August, an increase of 12 per cent compared to the same month in the previous year. The load factor was unchanged at 90 per cent. The load factor on the company's intercontinental operation was 96 per cent.

Both the total traffic growth (RPK) and the capacity growth (ASK) increased by 17 per cent this month.

Norwegian CEO Bjørn Kjos said: "The August traffic figures show that our positive development continues with more passengers and high load factor in all markets. We're particularly satisfied with the development of our intercontinental operation, appealing to an increasing number of passengers on both sides of the Atlantic."

Norwegian operated 99.6 per cent of the scheduled flights in August, whereof 77.6 per cent departed on time.

Norwegian's fleet renewal program continues with full force in 2016 with the delivery of 21 brand new aircraft. The company took delivery of two Boeing 737-800 in August. With an average age of only 3.6 years, Norwegian's fleet is one of the world's "greenest" and most modern.

About Norwegian

The Norwegian story began over 27 years ago - we were founded in 1993 but only began operating as a low-cost carrier with bigger Boeing 737 aircraft in 2002. Norwegian expanded across the globe as the airline launched short-haul services across Europe and then entered the long-haul sector serving the US, Asia and South America. We operate a modern and fuel-efficient fleet consisting of Boeing 787 Dreamliners and Boeing 737s.

We were the first airline in the world to join the UN Climate Secretariat's climate action-initiative in 2019, pledging to work systematically to become carbon neutral by 2050.

From being voted for six consecutive years as Europe's Best Low Cost airline and for five consecutive years as the World's Best Low Cost Long Haul Airline by Skytrax to winning Airline Program of the Year Europe & Africa for the fourth consecutive year at the 2020 Freddie Awards - In total Norwegian has won over 55 awards for our service, product and innovation in the industry since 2012.

Norwegian has become part of the fabric of Nordic culture and we take great pride in exporting our Nordic values across the world.
